A-level students secure 98 per cent pass rate - the borough's best results ever

By Charles Thomson

basildon@yellowad.co.uk

STUDENTS across east London have been congratulated after achieving high pass rates in their A-level exams.

Waltham Forest Council praised college and sixth form students after the borough scored a 98 per cent pass rate.

The council said the majority of colleges and sixth forms had increased their average grades.

At Leyton Sixth Form, Essex Road, the pass rate was 99.5 per cent, while every single vocational student completing a diploma was successful, and almost half achieved distinctions.

The Sir George Monoux Sixth Form College, Chingford Road, said many subjects had scored 100 per cent pass rates and the number of A* and A grades had risen by almost a third.

The Holy Family Catholic School and Sixth Form, Shernhall Street, achieved its best ever results, with 50 per cent of students passing with A* to B grades, and an overall 99 per cent pass rate.

Chris Robbins, leader of Waltham Forest Council, said: "A huge well done to all the borough's hard-working students. We wish them the best of luck for their future."

"Congratulations must also go to Waltham Forest's dedicated teachers and school staff who, like us, are committed to doing all they can to help young people reach their full potential."

Meanwhile, Barking and Dagenham secured an overall 99 per cent pass rate, with 78 per cent achieving A* to C grades.

Barking and Dagenham Council said it was the fifth consecutive year that the number of A* to C grades had risen.

There was also an improvement in the number of A* to B grades, which was 47 per cent.

Six schools achieved 100 per cent pass rates. They were All Saints, Dagenham Park, ELUTEC, Robert Clack, Sydney Russell and Warren.

Councillor Evelyn Carpenter, cabinet member for education, said: "Our borough is full of talented young people and I was privileged to witness what this day meant for a lot of them."

"Our schools are improving year on year and I would like to commend the teachers and headteachers for their support and advice to these young people."

"Well done to all of our students, who have worked hard to produce the borough's best ever A-level results, and our schools who continue to improve year on year."

"Working with schools and parents, we will ensure our young people are well-educated, have improved employment opportunities and reach their highest aspirations."

Bancroft's School, Redbridge, saw a huge 90 per cent of all A-level students graded at A* to B and 67 per cent at A* to A.

Outgoing headteacher Mary Ireland said: "I am delighted so many students have got positive results, allowing them to follow their chosen courses at university."

"These results reflect the hard work by teachers and pupils."

Give blood, save lives, says local NHS Trust

THE BARKING, Havering and Redbridge NHS Trust has called on more people to donate blood.

The trust has signed up to a national campaign by NHS Blood and Transplant

The campaign has been launched to combat a 'decline in new blood donors'.

It will see participants remove the letters A, B and O – the main blood groups – from their names and logos.

The trust has removed the letters A, O and B from its Twitter name as part of the scheme.

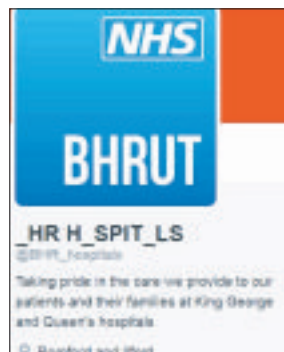

Doctors at the trust used more than 14,000 units of red blood cells last year and, said a spokesman, the trust 'constantly needs to up its supplies'.

Julie Wright, the Trust's lead transfusion practitioner, said: "We're really proud to be supporting this campaign. As the sixth-biggest user of blood in London, we know the importance of having enough to provide transfusions to our patients when they need them."

"Campaigns such as this are really important because they help make people realise they could save someone's life – simply by donating blood."

To find out more, register to become a blood donor or locate your local blood-donating venue, log on to www.blood.co.uk

Criminal caution as police officer admits to 'months of misconduct'

AN OFFICER has been sacked by the Metropolitan Police Service after he received a criminal caution for harassment.

PC Daniel Deavin, who served Redbridge, lost his job following a special case misconduct hearing on Wednesday. The panel heard he received the caution in March.

Assistant commissioner Helen King said: "It is essential that police officers uphold the highest standards of behaviour both on and off duty, and that they comply with the law that they are entrusted to enforce.

"PC Deavin has admitted to a course of conduct that was not a single isolated misjudgement but continued over a period of months."

"Victims of stalking and harassment are often fearful that the police will not take their concerns seriously or act to safeguard them."

"Much work has been done to counter this apprehension.

"For a serving police officer to act in this way in contravention of the Protection from Harassment 1997 Act undermines the growing confidence of stalking and domestic abuse victims and brings discredit on the police service, particularly in the eyes of these vulnerable victims."

"Therefore, I have determined that the only appropriate sanction in this case is dismissal without notice."

NEWS IN BRIEF

QUEEN'S and King George hospitals have recruited 146 trainee doctors.

The hospitals, run by the Barking, Havering and Redbridge NHS Trust, have also taken on 57 new Foundation year 1 doctors.

A spokesman said: "As part of their training, first year foundation doctors undertake work shadowing, while the new recruits rotate among hospital departments to learn all aspects of their position."

"The trust holds a detailed induction for the trainees, and provides ongoing support in their new role."

Council to build new homes

COUNCIL-OWNED garage sites are to be developed to build new houses.

Waltham Forest Council and Keepmoat will build 52 homes on 15 sites across the borough.

One site is St Leonard's Avenue, Chingford, where work is under way to demolish garages and build two three-bedroomed houses.

The homes will be a mixture of houses and flats, and work is set to finish in March.

They will all have solar panels, gas boilers, along with insulated walls and roofs to help cut down on energy costs.

Little Mix on stage

Rain doesn't stop play at V

POPSTARS Justin Bieber and Umbrella singer Rihanna headlined Chelmsford's V Festival with the latter performing despite the rain at Hylands Park.

More than 100 artists performed across six stages, including Little Mix, Sia, Tinie Tempah, Bastille, Faithless, Kaiser Chiefs and Rick Astley.

Now in its 21st year, the festival featured a BBC Radio 1 dance stage for the first time.

The weekend featured surprise performances by Craig David, Bebe Rexha and MNEK.

Celebrities among the audience included former JLS singer Aston Merrygold, his ex-bandmate Marvin Humes, Marvin's wife and Saturdays singer Rochelle Humes and Mark Wright from TV's Towie.

Essex Police patrolled the festival and made 43 arrests and removed 133 people.

Assistant Chief Constable Carl O'Malley said: "This year we introduced Project Servator to the event and I'm really pleased with the overall success of the policing operation.

"The innovative tactics made the festival an uncomfortable environment for criminals to operate in and it's something we'll definitely adopt next year.

"This was the second year where a Public Space Protection order was enforced to combat antisocial behaviour and use of psychoactive substances.

"As a result, 133 people were ejected from the festival, sending our a clear message that these drugs are not tolerated.

"I want to thank all officers who worked extremely hard over the weekend and liaised closely with the organisers, security team and retailers to ensure festivalgoers enjoyed a safe event.

"We look forward to V Festival 2017."

Mr O'Malley said anybody who had been the victim of a crime at V Festival should contact Essex Police by dialling 101.

Raider targets hospice shop and steals cash

WANTED: Do you know him?

THIS is a CCTV image of a man detectives are looking for following a burglary at a hospice shop.

St Francis Hospice Shop, St Mary's Lane, Upminster, was raided on Sunday, July 3.

Police have issued CCTV footage of a man they wish to identify and speak to in connection with the incident.

The burglary was committed between 6pm the previous day and 4.15pm on July 3.

Around £300 of damage was caused to the rear door.

CCTV overlooking the rear door filmed a man walking up to the premises.

He climbed onto the bin outside and placed an empty box over the camera lens.

He then broke into the shop and took money from the till.

The suspect is described as a clean shaven white man of medium build, aged in his 20s.

He was wearing a dark baseball cap with white writing on the top, grey hooded tracksuit top, black trousers and black and white trainers.

"Great job and a pleasant experience. Having had bad experiences with home improvement companies in the past it was a relief to deal with Dolphin. No pressure, no messing around, kept us informed at every stage and did a lovely job, our house looks so much better now"

Special's 'Books in Nicks' up for police award

SUSPECTS in custody suites across east London are to be offered a selection of books to read in their cells.

The scheme, dubbed Books in Nicks, was devised by Special Constable Steve Whitmore and costs the taxpayer nothing because the books are donated by charity Give A Book, which also supplies books to prisons.

SC Whitmore said he approached Give A Book with the idea after he arrested an 18-year-old man earlier this year on suspicion of assault and drugs possession.

The young man asked for a book but SC Whitmore could not find anything he thought would interest him.

He said: "I offered him my own book, Catcher in the Rye, and told him to keep it. The look on his face was amazing.

"His attitude and hostility towards me completely changed and it created common ground for us to talk about.

"He said he'd never been given a book before to own and that really moved me."

Catcher in the Rye will now be among more than 30 titles on offer to suspects who, like the man SC Whitmore arrested, will be allowed to take them home upon their release.

The paperbacks, donated by Give A Book, will include Moby Dick, Great Expectations and Treasure Island.

A force spokesman said they would be written in easy-to-read formats and available in a number of different languages.

He added: "Inside every book, readers find a leaflet advertising free educational courses and how to register for them.

"Alongside the books, a junior magazine is offered called The Week, an easy-to-read publication for young readers, with lots of pictorial content and current articles."

The project has been shortlisted for a Ferrers Special Constabulary Award.

Give A Book trustee Victoria Gray said: "We just thought it was a brilliant idea and right up our street.

"We thought carefully about the types of books that should go in – quick reads, short stories, poetry, books that are immediately engaging – and were able to provide them.

"Just the act of giving a book can change a difficult situation.

"It shows you're being thought about differently.

"I truly believe that reading can open a door and help turn people's lives around."

BMW 2-series joins hybrid charge

By Edward Stephens

BMW has always gone to great lengths to extol the virtues of rear wheel drive cars, rigidly sticking to the same formula for its saloons.

But the German luxury car maker also prides itself on automotive advancement so with the launch of its new 2-Series Active Tourer petrol/electric hybrid the time was right to do something different.

This generously proportioned, spacious family car is powered by a 1.5-litre, 134bhp, three cylinder petrol engine driving the front wheels and an 88bhp electric motor driving the rear ones.

It means that at times the car is driven by the engine, at times by the electric motor and often by a combination of the two giving it all the benefits of four-wheel-drive.

BMW claims the car is capable of up to 141 miles per gallon, while at the same time keeping CO2 levels down to just 46g/km, a hefty bonus to company car drivers as well as avoiding road tax.

As a multi-purpose vehicle this car was never going to be as sleek as most BMWs but the high stance and slightly domed roof do give a particularly spacious feel to the interior even when there are five people travelling.

In contrast the rally-style front seats in black with contrasting red saddle stitching,

REWARDING: BMW Active Tourer 225ex PHEV Sport

a leather-look dashboard with the same stitching and piano black inserts on the dashboard and doors give the inside a distinctly sporting appearance.

And while it is an MPV it's one with attitude, accelerating to 62 miles per hour in 6.7 seconds.

In practice it feels even quicker, particularly if you have selected sports mode and initial take-off is particularly quick, making it ideal at busy roundabouts and junctions.

The 225ex is also a very easy car to drive, highly manoeuvrable and with pin sharp steering.

It features a six-speed automatic gearbox which you can use in normal drive mode, in sport or manually.

To get the full benefits you need to be able to plug in and re-charge the car regularly but the engine and braking does generate some battery power so you are unlikely to ever be without total battery back up.

Like all similar hybrids the switch from battery to petrol power is seamless and only really obvious when the rev counter bursts into life or if you are in a particularly quiet area and you hear the engine cut in.

This is a car which is very well equipped and easy to live with thanks to features such as a head up display, powered tail-gate and electric heated front seats with memory settings.

Unlike on some hybrids there is a sensible sized boot as BMW has managed to fit the lithium-ion battery under the rear seat rather than under the luggage area so you get 400 litres of space with the rear seat-backs in place.

There is no doubt that the Sport Active Tourer 225ex is a far more rewarding car to drive than I expected, but the only real problem is the price.

If you want to help keep the environment clean I'm afraid you have to pay a premium compared to petrol and diesel alternatives.

Late Antonio header gives West Ham first victory at new home

Football

West Ham United 1 AFC Bournemouth 0

Brian Jeeves reporting from the London Stadium

MICHAEL Antonio's late header earned injury-hit West Ham three points against 10-man Bournemouth in the opening Premier League match at the London Stadium.

West Ham went into the match rocked by the news that striker Andy Carroll would be out for up to six weeks after picking up a knee injury.

This was a huge blow to manager Slaven Bilic, who had already lost record signing Andre Ayew, along with Aaron Cresswell, Manuel Lanzini and Sofiane Feghouli.

However, more worrying was the exclusion of talismanic frontman, Dimitri Payet, sidelined after picking up a knock during the defeat at Chelsea, although he is expected to be back in time for the Europa League clash with Astra Giurgiu on Thursday.

Mindful that both sides lost their opening Premier League fixtures, there was some nervousness surrounding the teams' approaches.

Turkish midfielder Gokhan Tore fired over as the hosts probed for an opening. But in truth, Bournemouth dealt comfortably with West Ham's early pressure, but without creating an opportunity of their own.

Chances certainly came at a premium. Cheikhou Kouyate and Antonio were off-target, while Kouyate warmed the palms of Cherries' Polish international goalkeeper Artur Boruc.

Hammers defender Sam Byram hacked off the line from Steve Cook, while Adam Smith tested Adrian from distance as Bournemouth emerged from their defensive shell and offered the first viable attempts of the second period. And the Cherries went even closer when Joshua King's piledriver was acrobatically tipped over by Adrian.

West Ham's stuttering start to the second 45 minutes filtered through to the home crowd, who had become agitated by their side's unusually tame performance.

Tore tried to change the mood, crisply striking into the side netting after skipper Mark Noble and Antonio had fashioned the opening from the left.

At the other end, Jordan Ibe's effort did little to trouble Adrian as Bournemouth continued to ask the sterner questions.

West Ham were offered hope when Cherries midfielder Harry Arter was shown a second yellow card for a clumsy foul on Kouyate after 77 minutes and with time running out they made their numerical advantage pay.

Antonio arrived at the far post to firmly head Tore's delicious centre beyond Boruc in the 85th minute to the relief of the home fans.

The Hammers survived a late Bournemouth raid when both King and Simon Francis saw their efforts blocked, while substitute Jonathan Calleri should have put the contest out of reach, firing the wrong side of an upright after racing clear.

After the match, Bilic said: "We didn't expect to play great football and play like Brazil and pass, pass, pass because, with the greatest respect, we were missing four of our most creative players.

"Against Bournemouth, a team full of energy and really good in terms of team spirit, we showed aggression and compactness and created a few chances.

"I didn't expect more than that, but we scored from one of those moves, so I think we just deserved it."

He continued: "Bournemouth were better than us in the first 15 minutes of the second half, but they didn't hurt us.

"We just deserved it. We were pushing and wanted it more. We're delighted to end the first game at this beautiful stadium with a win and a clean sheet."

Bournemouth manager Eddie Howe, said: "It was a tight game with little goalmouth action. It was going to swing on a moment of brilliance or a mistake. Unfortunately, the mistake for us was going down to 10 men.

"We've been told about dissent. It's been drilled into us. If we lose our discipline, we could have a flurry of red cards. Unfortunately, we fell victim to that."

West Ham turn their attention to the UEFA Europa League, play-off round, second leg, when they face Astra Giurgiu (agg 1-1) on Thursday, August 25 at the London Stadium (7.45pm).

West Ham United: Adrian, Winston Reid, Havard Nordtveit (Ashley Fletcher 80'), Cheikhou Kouyate, Enner Valencia (Jonathan Calleri 63'), Mark Noble (Capt), Gokhan Tore (Pedro Obiang 89'), James Collins, Sam Byram, Arthur Masuaku, Michail Antonio Subs not used: Darren Randolph (GK), Angelo Ogbonna, Reece Burke, Reece Oxford

Assistants: Harry Lennard and Ian Huslin

Non-league round-up

Daggers continue long road back

By Brian Jeeves

DAGENHAM and Redbridge climbed into second place in the National League following an impressive 3-1 win over Woking at the Kingfield Stadium.

A Craig Robson own-goal, plus strikes from Fejiri Okenabirhie and Jordan Maguire-Drew saw the Daggers race into a 3-0 lead at the break.

Former Brentford striker Anthony Edgar pulled one back for the hosts.

Jake Goodman and Simeon Akinola found the net as Braintree Town saw off Aldershot Town 2-0 at Cressing Road. This was the Iron's first win of the campaign and lifts them into 16th place.

East Thurrock United proved to be too hot for Gosport Borough in the National South Division.

Harry Honesty hit a brace, while Joe Ellul, Michael Freiter and Joe Gardener were also on target in a resounding 5-1 victory for the Rocks.

Concord Rangers picked up a point in a 2-2 draw at Oxford City. Marvin Ekpitieta and Joao Carlos had given the Beach Boys a 2-0 lead, only for former Southend United man Louie Soares (penalty), and Reece Fleet to grab late goals to earn a share of the spoils.

Elsewhere in the South section, Dave Tarpey's second half goals gave Maidenhead United a 1-0 victory over Chelmsford City.

Canvey Island were the region's big winners in the Ryman Premier Division. Martin Tuohy bagged a hat-trick, including one from the penalty spot, as the Gulls saw off Leatherhead by three goals to nil at Park Lane. Adeyinka Cole's second half spot-kick earned Grays Athletic a 1-1 draw with Bognor Regis Town. However, there were 3-2 defeats on the road for Billericay Town and Harlow Town at Staines Town and Worthing respectively. Junior Luke and Connor Hubble found the net for the Blues, while Lewis Perkins and a Mario Nobo (penalty) was not enough for Harlow on the south coast.

In the FA Cup preliminary round, Abs Thompson scored the only goal as AFC Hornchurch won a tense tie with Aveley at Mill Field on Friday night.

Saturday's ties saw Brightlingsea Regent grab a late 2-1 win over Great Wakering Rovers. Kris Newby was on target for Rovers, Aaron Condon and Tom Richardson sending the hosts into the first qualifying round.

Heybridge Swifts won 4-1 at Royston. Reece Grant (2), George Cole and Callum Leahy on target for the Swifts. Meanwhile, Witham Town were 3-0 winners over Eton Manor, Scott Kemp (2) and Nathan Koranteng with the goals.

Halstead Town progressed thanks to an entertaining 3-2 win at Thurrock. Crick and Stimson found the net for the Ship Lane outfit, but Cook, O'Hare and Preece won it for the visitors.

Maldon & Tiptree also went through as Sam Newson and Adam Mills earned the Jammers a 2-0 success at Ware. Waltham Forest were also among the goals, seeing off Hoddesdon Town by four goals to nil.

Bowers & Pitsea earned a replay at the Len Salmon Stadium after Tom Hines and Aaron Russell helped them to a 2-2 draw at Waltham Abbey. And there will be a replay for Barking and Stanway Rovers, who drew 0-0.

There were heavy FA Cup defeats for Basildon United and Barkingside. The Bees crashed 8-0 at Cheshunt, while 'Side were on the wrong end of a 7-2 hammering at Haringey Borough. Ilford also crashed out of the cup, going down 2-0 to Felixstowe & Walton United at the Cricklefield Stadium, while Clapton were beaten by the same score by Sporting Bengal United. It's also the end of the Wembley trail for Tower Hamlets, who lost an entertaining tie at Sawbridgeworth Town 4-2.

In the Essex Senior League, Redbridge were 4-1 winners over Haringey & Waltham, while Southend Manor recorded a 2-0 victory over struggling Burnham Ramblers at Southchurch Park Arena. In the only other ESL match, London Bari and Stansted played out a 1-1 draw at the Old Spotted Dog.
